THE PRELUDE

Hawkstone Hall and Gardens, and indeed a plethora of grand residences, along with their parks and woodlands, have inspired many of our great Writers, Poets and Playwrights throughout History, to produce some of their best works.

With this in mind we decided to name our principal guest suites in honour of these Creative Masters, and in turn our expertly crafted Cocktail List pays homage to their genius.

Looking for a Classic? If your favourite Cocktail is not on the list, any of our Talented Bartenders will happily craft it for you.

ROSE & VIOLET

Percy Bysshe Shelley

One of the Poets best known works entitled Music, when soft voices die, has influenced many composers to translate this poem into song, whilst also inspiring our Master Bartender to create an elegant and dreamy libation.

BUTTER BEER

Joanne Kathleen Rowling

Born in 1965, JK Rowling as she is more commonly known, penned the first of her famous Harry Potter series of books in her local cafe, while her baby slept. She introduced the Wizardly brew of butter beer into her characters world at Hogwarts, and unsurprisingly it proved most popular. Our Potation is a little more grown up, but its magical power does mean that your inner young witch or wizard may surface!

INGREDIENTS
BUTTERSCOTCH
SCHNAPPS, VANILLA
VODKA, CREAM SODA,
BUTTERSCOTCH SYRUP
A NON-ALCOHOLIC
VERSION IS AVAILABLE

£15.00/
£7.50

CARROTINI

Beatrix Potter

The Tale of Peter Rabbit, published in 1901, having sold over 45 million copies, is one of the best-selling books of all time, and Peters love of carrots is reflected in this delightful concoction which can arguably boast to include two of your five a day dietary requirements!

INGREDIENTS
ORANGE VODKA,
CARROT JUICE, ORANGE JUICE

£17.50

LOVE & DEATH

Lord George Gordon Byron

The passion of love and loss is characterised by the dramatic layers of this exquisite cocktail, with reverence to Byron's powerful poem of the same name.

INGREDIENTS
BLACK SAMBUCA,
CHERRY BRANDY,
CRANBERRY JUICE, GRENADINE
£14.50

SPARKLING CYANIDE

Agatha Christie

The Author, one of the most prolific crime thriller writers of all time, published this particular novel in 1945. Of course, no toxic substances are present in this thrilling concoction, however you will notice the faint aroma of almonds, allegedly similar to the sinister poison, whilst partaking of this tipple!

INGREDIENTS
ENGLISH SPARKLING
WINE, ALMOND SYRUP,
DISARONNO, ALMOND
BITTER
£16.50

THE LUMINARY

Virginia Woolf

The novelist, born in 1882, is considered to be one of the most important modernist 20th century writers of all time. This cocktail is an adaptation of the classic Dark & Stormy, reflecting the engulfing black moods that often permeated The Authors troubled mind. Our version is in honour of her luminary work.

INGREDIENTS
DARK RUM, GINGER
BEER, LIME, HONEY

£16.50

HONEY POT

Alan Alexander Milne

A.A Milne wrote the first in a series of books about his own childhood Teddy bear, Winnie the Pooh in 1926, and it is a very well-known fact that Pooh's favourite thing In the whole wide world is honey, a key component in this delicious little smackerel of a cocktail!

INGREDIENTS
HONEY BOURBON,
LEMON JUICE, HONEY,
ORANGE BITTERS

£16.50

MR DARCY

Jane Austen

One of the two principal characters in the novel Pride and Prejudice, written by the author in 1813, is Fitzwilliam Darcy, an archetypal, aloof, romantic hero, as quintessentially English as Afternoon Tea.

INGREDIENTS
EARL GREY INFUSED
GIN, EARL GREY
TEA, LEMON JUICE, ELDERFLOWER
£16.50

VICTORIAN LEMONADE

Alfred Lord Tennyson

Born in 1809, Tennyson became the Poet Laureate of Great Britain during much of Queen Victoria's Reign, and held that title for 42 years. To this day, no other poet in history has retained the title for longer. This cocktail has been composed in recognition of this remarkable era.

INGREDIENTS
CITRUS VODKA, LEMON
JUICE, SUGAR, SODA
A NON-ALCOHOLIC
VERSION IS AVAILABLE
£15.50/

ROMANTIC

William Wordsworth

*This popular poet was born in 1770, and his first poem, An Evening Walk, was published in 1793. His life's work is accredited to being hugely influential in the launch of the Romantic age of English literature. The gorgeous hue of this delectable concoction represents the colour of love and romance.*

INGREDIENTS
LYCHEE LIQUEUR,
VODKA, GRENADINE, LEMONADE

£12.50

CANDY & APATHY

Emily Bronte

Wuthering Heights, one of the most famous novels ever written about unrequited love, was penned by the author between 1845-1846. This creation reflects the tumultuous Journey of most, if not all the characters as the sweetness of love and passion dissolves into destructive emotional apathy. Despite its subject, this cocktail is a fun and joyful affair.

INGREDIENTS
VODKA, RASPBERRY
VODKA, CRANBERRY
JUICE, CANDY FLOSS

£15.50

THE JAMAICA G'INN

Daphne Du Maurier

The Jamaica Inn, known to have been frequented by smugglers, and its rugged location on Bodmin Moor, was the inspiration behind the authors famous novel of the same name. This cocktail encompasses a taste of the copious tipples undoubtedly enjoyed by its patrons, on many a windswept night.

INGREDIENTS
CORNISH GIN,
JAMAICAN RUM, RED
WINE, ORANGE JUICE

£17.50

ISABELLA POT OF BASIL

John Keats

This poem was written in 1818, and lavishly depicts romantic ideals. The main subject has been a choice of muse, portrayed in paintings by various artists, many of which are still on public display today. The aromatic inclusion of the fragrant herb basil is a wonderful compliment to this refreshing cocktail.

INGREDIENTS
HENDRICKS, BASIL,
SUGAR, SODA

£14.50
